

In re: Scott Goodwin-Johansson

Appl. No.: 10/053,439

Filed: November 20, 2002

Page 2

RECEIVED
NOV 25 2002
TECHNOLOGY CENTER 2000

lower surface of the second contact is directly opposite from the upper surface of the first contact, and a piezoelectric actuator deposited on the upper surface of the second contact and fully supported by the second contact, wherein the piezoelectric actuator selectively deforming the second contact relative to the first contact such that the lower surface of the second contact selectively engages the upper surface of the first contact.

Cancel